Paysquare featured among India's 20 most promising compliance companies

Featured by CIO Review for its outstanding contribution in the field of risk, compliance and governance

Pune, India, August 08, 2014: Paysquare Consultancy Ltd. announced today that it has been featured among the '20 most promising Indian companies in the field of risk, compliance and governance'. The feature is published by CIOReview magazine in their July 2014 issue.

"It is a great honour to be listed as one of the most promising compliance companies. We are happy that our efforts have been recognized." Said Rakesh Jain, CEO Paysquare.

Global compliance has become imperative for companies across the world in several industry sectors. Enterprise governance, risk management and compliance (eGRC) is being considered critical to business management. It is mandatory for every company to pass the hurdle of compliance requirements.

On being recognized by CIO Review, Rakesh Jain, CEO, Paysquare said, "Our endeavour at Paysquare has always been to help small and large enterprises in meeting the payroll and compliance requirements to ensure their business continuity. For our customers, we take the responsibility of keeping track and managing all the statutory compliances."
